Madras, Madras.

Sir,

Subject:- Constitution of Advisory Board under the Preventive Detention Act- Payment of sitting fees to the members.

I am directed to state that an Advisory Board has been constituted in Mysore State, after the passing of the Preventive Detention (Amendment) Act, 1951, which consists of two retired judges of the High Court of Mysore and a District Judge who is in service.

The two retired judges are paid some amount as sitting fees for each day of the meeting. A question has arisen whether the third member, who is holding office at present, is eligible to draw the sitting fees on the days of the meeting just as the other two members do.

Since Judges of the High Court or District Judges might have been appointed as Members of the Advisory Board, in your State, I am to enquire whether any sitting ~~fee~~ fee is payable to those members, particularly to those ~~who are holding office.~~

An early reply is requested.

Yours faithfully,

H. V. Rao

For Chief Secretary to Government.
